

Burton Community Council

Training Plan

Burton Community Council takes a dual approach to training.

- It is the Clerk's responsibility to ensure that training opportunities are made available for community councillors on an ongoing basis.
- It is the responsibility of community councillors to highlight areas in which they require training.

New community councillors are provided with three documents: Standing Orders; Good Councillor Guide; and Model Code of Conduct.

OCTOBER 2022